GOLF DE CHANTILLY

Founded in 1909, Chantilly is an essential part of the history of Golf in France. For more than a century, Chantilly has maintained an unmatched tradition of quality and authentic sport in a natural setting.

The Club House and the two 18 holes courses have become one of the monuments of international Golf. Several European Championships and 10 French Opens have taken place at Chantilly which is regularly listed among the 5 best courses in Europe.

The Club host every year the French Amateur International Stroke Play Championship - Coupe Murat on Vineuil Course.

On September 28, 1909, the course was officially opened. The occasion was a match play between the 2 best French professionals at the time: Jean Gassiat and Arnaud Massy (the only Frenchman to have ever won the British Open, in 1907).

The master-architect Tom Simpson, the famous Scotsman who designed so many great courses in Europe, including Chantilly was present for the occasion along side Prince Murat and Baron Edouard de Rothschild and other founding members.

They played at Chantilly: Tiger Woods, Nick Faldo, Severiano Ballesteros, Greg Norman, Bobby Locke, Gary Player, Henry Cotton, Jean Garaialde, Bernard Langer, Curtis Strange, Roberto de Vincenzo, Peter Oosterhuis, Tony Jacklin, Jose Maria Olazabal, Sandy Lyle, Ian Woosnam, Jean Van de Velde, Thomas Levet, Jean François Remesy, Alexander Lévy, Grégory Bourdy, Grégory Havret, Raphaël Jacquelin, Marc-Antoine Farry, etc.

Alexis GODILLOT one of the most capped french amateur champions and Michael BONALLACK 5 times british amateur champion, both members of Chantilly explain: « you must follow the rythm of this course, as difficulties increase as you go on. If you have used all your energy on the way out, you will not cope with the final 6 holes, which is regarded as the ultimate test. And there is not a single water hazard or a blind hole... »
